

Mission

We embrace the process of educating, empowering and encouraging. Our mission is to empower community members through education whether theory or practical.

ILFO provide language instruction, employment training, job search programs and information programs on Canada culture and life.